THE STORY OF JOSEPH AND HIS BRETHERN The story of Joseph and his brothers is one of the most famous and best-loved stories ever written. It is known in every land and has been translated into every tongue. It is the story of a shepherd lad who rose from slavery to a power hardly less than that of the mighty ruler of Egypt. Joseph was a dreamer, a boy who had imagination, his fathers favorite who felt a little superior to his brothers. Sold into slavery, all the fine qualities of his character came out. He was chosen by Pharaoh as the chief ruler of the kingdom. In the days of famine which came upon the land his wisdom and statesmanship saved the nation. PERSONS OF THE STORY Jacob Joseph) Reuben i-sons of Jacob Judah J One Of The Brethren, spokesman for the rest...
