Feedaread.com, United Kingdom, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Few fictional characters come over as strongly as feisty TV presenter, Jennifer Lloyd - on a mission to make a name for herself. Three years earlier, Digby Barrington-Smith's wife suspiciously drowned in the lake of his prestigious Dorset house and gardens attraction in the UK, a member of staff went missing, and a pet dog died. Although initially suspicious of Digby, the police eventually accepted his wife's death was accidental. But there were just too many coincidences for Jen to accept. So she plans to worm her way into his confidence, surreptitiously find out what happened, and dramatically expose a killer during the climax of a documentary about the gardens. Jen is an emotionally scarred 25 year-old hiding vulnerabilities resulting from being sexually abused in a children's home. It left her with a general distrust of men - although cameraman, Josh, lives and hopes to change all that. But her job is based on a false claim to have a degree in ecology, and she dreads this being discovered. Fame seems the only way to underpin her new career, so she is willing to take risks. She shares with the reader her worries and fears, her thinking about the certainty of two murders, the humorous elements of her job, and the anger she feels against her abuser - and a father who abandoned her as a child of three after her mother's tragic accident. Death threats are just one of her problems during Jen's investigation into Digby. Now she understands why the police gave up and finally accepted his wife's death was accidental. Nothing is plain - apart from the fact there...
